

Happy Summer!

SCB Summer Newsletter - Volume 2

Dear SCB Families,

As we move through another wonderful week of our SCB Summer Camp, our hearts are also with those in my home state. We are deeply heartbroken by the devastating floods that have impacted so many families across Texas. Please join us in keeping all those affected in your thoughts and prayers during this incredibly difficult time.

In the midst of these heavy events, we are reminded how precious the safety and joy of our children truly are. Thank you for the trust you've placed in us to care for and guide your kids this summer and throughout the school year. It's a responsibility we carry with great care and gratitude. Watching them learn, play, and grow together is an incredible gift.

As we look ahead to the fall, preparations for the upcoming school year are well underway. Please see below for information on summer homework, supply lists, carpools, sports, and more. We will continue to communicate updates to keep you informed and prepared!

St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us.

With heartfelt prayers and appreciation,
Jeanette Johnson
Vice Principal, SCB
