Student Spectator Information

Important Information Regarding Students at After School Games

Students attending after-school games as spectators must first be picked up from school and return with an adult. If that adult is not their usual parent/guardian, please email the school in advance with the name of the adult who will be supervising your child.

If any student does not have an adult with them, they will be taken to After School Care.

Gym Rules & Etiquette

Please famililarize yourself with the SCB Gym Rules & Ettiquette

- The electric room is off-limits to all students and children. Only coaches may enter.
- Siblings and other children who are not participating in practice must be supervised and kept off the court.
- All water bottles, pinnies, basketballs, equipment, personal belongings, and trash must be picked up after practice.
- Locker rooms must be left clean and orderly.
- Players should remain in the stands or locker room until their scheduled practice time. No early court access, dribbling, or warm-ups while another team practices.

Please be respectful of other teams' practice times.
Coaches are expected to end practices promptly at their scheduled time so the next team can access the court and begin warming up.
